

Childhood Lead Exposure: Percent Tested 2018 Birth Year

‡ An elevated blood lead level (EBLL) is defined as a result at or above 5 micrograms of lead per deciliter of blood (mcg/dL).

Tests among children under 3 years. Lead testing is not universal in Minnesota. Children with risk factors (such as older housing or poverty status) for lead exposure are targeted for testing.

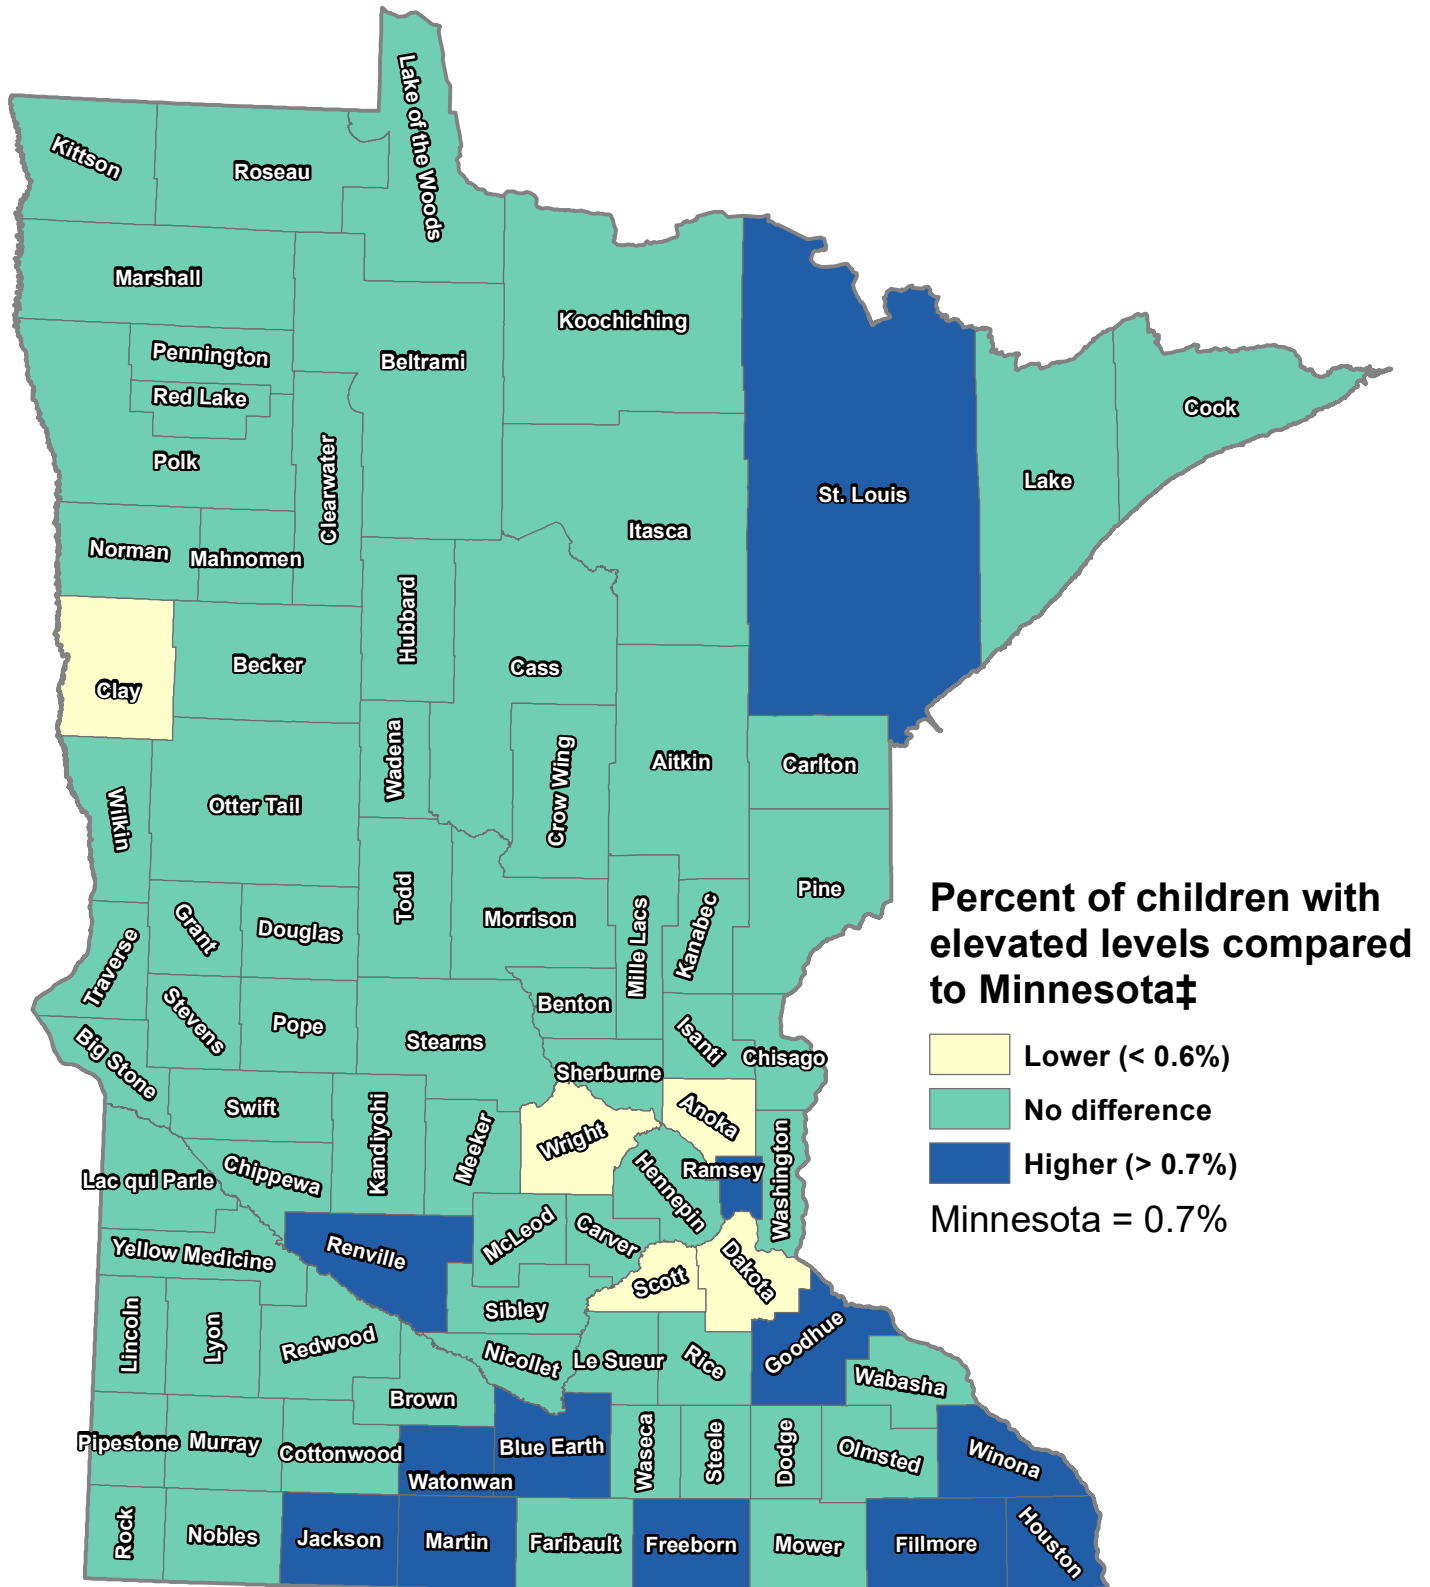

Minnesota Environmental Public Health Tracking Program
Minnesota Public Health Data Access

<http://health.mn.gov/mndata>

6/1/2023

Childhood Lead Exposure: Percent Elevated ( $\geq 5\text{mcg/dL}$ ) 2018 Birth Year

‡ An elevated blood lead level (EBLL) is defined as a result at or above 5 micrograms of lead per deciliter of blood (mcg/dL).

Tests among children under 3 years. Lead testing is not universal in Minnesota. Children with risk factors (such as older housing or poverty status) for lead exposure are targeted for testing.

Minnesota Environmental Public Health Tracking Program
Minnesota Public Health Data Access

<http://health.mn.gov/mndata>

6/1/2023